

LAWYER'S DENIAL DEEPENS MYSTERY OF BURRELLE WILL

Says She Cancelled Her Old Document and Never Made Another.

EXPECTED TO BE SLAIN.

Wrote That Friend Who "Had Something to Gain" Would Murder Her.

Charles M. Beattie, for twenty years counsel for Frank A. Burrelle, the press clipping man, and since Burrelle's death, two years ago, attorney for his widow, Nellie Burrelle, who died at the Hotel Carlton last week under circumstances that aroused the suspicions of Coroner Holtzhauser, said today he did not believe Mrs. Burrelle left a will.

According to the best information of Charles M. Beattie, manager of the Burrelle clipping business, Mrs. Burrelle did make a will a year ago in which she left a majority of stock in the company to herself and other employees.

Clasp regarding the will was started by a letter from Mrs. M. P. Kenney of Chattanooga, Tenn., in which Mrs. Kenney told a friend of Mrs. Burrelle that the dead woman had written her a week before saying she expected to be murdered by a man she named, with whom she had a variable friendship and who, she said, had something to gain by her death.

"So far as I know," said Mr. Beattie today, "Mrs. Burrelle never made but one will. It was a will which was made at the same time that her husband made his will and the two were executed together under my supervision. In his will Mr. Burrelle left everything except thirty shares of the clipping business to Mrs. Nellie Burrelle. Of the thirty shares, twenty were left to his daughter, Mignon, and ten to his son, Douglas, the children of his first wife, Mrs. Julia Burrelle.

"In her will Mrs. Burrelle left everything to her husband except a slight provision for her two sisters.

CANCELLED WILL WHEN HUSBAND DIED.

"After her husband's death Mrs. Burrelle came to my office and cancelled her will, saying she meant to make another. There were just two points on which she could make up her mind. She wanted to protect the business from falling into the hands of her husband's children by the first wife and she wanted to leave the control in the hands of Charles M. Beattie. She never could make up her mind on an executor. She wanted me to act and I would not.

"She came to my office or sent for me repeatedly, but always became nervous and put off the drawing of the will after she had discussed it a little while.

"The fact that she had made mysterious references to her fears of being murdered mean little to me. She was a moody woman with a morbid, melodramatic mind. Much has been made of her friendship with Dr. Ames. She knew him before her husband's death.

HER WILL DIVIDING $200,000 ESTATE STRANGELY MISSING.

She was extravagantly fond of him at times, but she always insisted that she never meant to marry him. When he announced their engagement, she quarreled with him violently. She made up with him just as impulsively.

HER ACTIONS AT TIME OF HUSBAND'S DEATH.

"At the time of her husband's death she was between Costa Rica and New Orleans as he attempted to commit suicide. But when she brought his body on here and met the friends and sympathizers at the pier she took Dr. Ames' arm and

DON'T USE DRUGS FOR CONSTIPATION

Just Try Nature's Cure.

We all know that constipation brings on countless other complaints if not taken in hand, appendicitis among them—also that any drug will lower the power after being taken for a time—but we should also know that if Nature can be assisted instead of being forced, so much the better for our health.

There is now a method of Internal Bathing which will keep the intestines as clean and pure and free from waste as exacting Nature can demand—which, taken occasionally, will prevent constipation, biliousness, with its depression, and the countless more serious diseases which are caused by the blood taking up the poisons from the intestines and carrying them through the system.

That method is the "J. B. L. Cascade," which is being enthusiastically used by many thousands, is prescribed by the most enlightened physicians everywhere, and is now being shown and explained by all Riker Drug Stores in New York and Brooklyn.

Every one should at least investigate this Nature-cure without delay.

TEN TALKATIVE CELESTIALS DISTURB WEST SIDE COURT.

Two Interpreters and Many Attendants Finally Silence Owners of Unclean Laundries.

A competition in Celestial phonetics was held in West Side Police Court today before Magistrate Herbert. It took two interpreters and numerous court attendants to prevent its developing into a six-day talkfest. Ten Chinamen talking at one time is no idle jest.

"Tell them they are charged with violating the law for having unclean laundries," said the Magistrate. The interpreter did. Ten Chinamen were silenced. It sounded like Bedlam broken loose.

"Tell them to stop," commanded the Judge. The interpreter did. The Chinamen did not. Two interpreters told them. It had no effect. Court attendants gesticulated and pleaded. The interpreters threatened. The conversation gradually died down to murmurs, then to whispers and finally there was silence.

Magistrate Herbert gave them until Dec. 21 to get their places cleaned up.
